

THE PARENT HELPLINE

1-800-332-6378
or 316-263-KIDS

The Parent Helpline is a free, anonymous telephone counseling service. It's a voice on the other end of the line who can empathize with what you're going through. It's a trained person who will listen and help you with simple questions or complex situations. There's no question too small, or problem too big. The Helpline counselors are available 24 hours a day, seven days a week and can refer you to services anywhere in Kansas.

Call the Parent Helpline whenever you have a question or problem. Don't wait until "the next time." When you feel frustrated, upset, or confused someone at the Parent Helpline will listen and help. Our counselors are ready to help parents and youth in any crisis situation.

WHO CALLS THE PARENT HELPLINE?

- Parents with children of all ages
- Teens
- Relatives
- Caregivers
- Professional social workers and counselors
- Anyone in crisis or in need of help or advice

The Parent Helpline and printing for this card are funded through private donations, the KCSL Foundation, and a grant from the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services through the Kansas Department of SRS.
